"2015 NSW Rural Women's Gathering in Glen Innes"

Glen Innes in the Northern Tablelands is well known for a number of reasons: beautiful scenery, livestock production, Celtic heritage, and winters worthy of log fires. In the coming year however, you'll be hearing more and more about the area, as the town prepares to host the 2015 NSW Rural Women's Gathering.

The event is entitled 'Gather in the Glen', and will be held from the 9th-11th October 2015. The Glen Innes community is thrilled with the opportunity to showcase the area, and the Gathering committee is already hard at work developing a programme that will offer both locals and guests a fun, informative, and inspiring gathering.

The theme for the weekend is 'Women for All Seasons', and Chair of the Gather in the Glen Committee Ms. Mary Hollingworth believes that the current climate has highlighted the need for rural women to not only maintain social connectedness, but to continue to move forward in the innovative manner that country people are renowned for. "The committee are planning a unique event focussing on current rural issues, while showcasing the district's rural and business enterprises. We want to ensure that the many visitors to Glen Innes will experience a weekend rich in educational, cultural, and social opportunities" she said.

In a first for NSW Rural Women's Gatherings, Gather in the Glen will be held under the auspices of the local Landcare network, GLENRAC (Glen Innes Natural Resources Advisory Committee), and both the gathering committee and GLENRAC are looking forward to working with the local community to bring a fantastic event to Glen Innes. Ms. Hollingworth said "we know that our visitors will leave Gather in the Glen feeling renewed and inspired, as they continue to support their families and communities in the many seasons of rural life."
