

Insurance Health Check

Are you covered?

Finding the time to go through your insurance policy can be difficult.....

- ❖ Request a copy of your policy in condensed format from your insurer or broker – put a note in your diary so you follow up
- ❖ Get your policy and check values on replacement costs of houses and main sheds
- ❖ Check that loads are covered if you are carting your own livestock, fert or grain

- ❖ Run your eye over the list of items your insurer has provided to
- ❖ Do a check on your machinery list. Take a realistic look at market values.
- ❖ Consider the pros and cons of livestock insurance, get a quote.

- ❖ Seek a re-quote on your general farm insurance.
- ❖ Sit down with your team or family and discuss the key risks facing your operation. Are there ways to reduce the likelihood of events?
