Helping vulnerable older people access aged care in New England North West

Care finders support older people who are unable to arrange services without intensive support and do not have a family member or friends who can help.

What help can care finders provide?

- talking to My Aged Care on an older person's behalf and arranging an assessment
- attending and providing support at the assessment
- finding and short-listing aged care providers in their area
- completing forms and understanding aged care service agreements
- checking in once services are up and running to make sure everything is okay
- understanding other needs and connecting to support services in the community, such as health, mental health, housing and homelessness, drug and alcohol services and community groups.

How can I refer someone to a care finder service in New England North West?

Call on 02 6701 8200 or email tamworth@anglicare.org.au to discuss eligibility and make a referral. For more information, visit: anglicare.org.au/carefinder

This service is supported by Hunter, New England and Central Coast PHN.
